

George H. Hobby, Jr.; thence across said road to the division of the fields of Mary E. Fisher and others along said line east until it reaches the southeast corner of the lot now owned by Samuel Handy, known as the Talbot lot; thence with said lot's line north until it reaches the Hillsboro and Denton public road on the south side; thence west with said public road to a point opposite the west side of the Ridgeley public road; thence along the west side of said road to a distance of two hundred and fifty yards from the southeast corner of the lot of W. F. Pennington, known as the William Hackett lot; thence west parallel with the main street of said town of Hillsboro, extending a distance of two hundred and fifty yards from the north of the main street of said town of Hillsboro to the Tuckahoe river at mean high water mark; thence south along the meanderings of the Tuckahoe river until it reaches the place of beginning; provided, that no taxes shall be levied by the Commissioners of Hillsboro for corporate purposes upon any real estate (that which is located upon open avenues to the depot of one hundred and eighty feet excepted) situated in said town, unless the same is divided into lots of one acre or less in area, or has a dwelling house or other buildings thereon, and then not exceeding one acre of such land shall be taxed in addition to the buildings.

Vacant lots not to be taxed.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the first election for Town Commissioners shall be held before William Pennington, C. H. Fleming and J. F. Russum, who are hereby appointed judges for that purpose and for the time hereinafter named; and provided, that in case any of said judges heretofore named shall be disqualified to act by sickness, death or otherwise, then the remaining judge or judges shall fill the vacancy by appointing suitable person or persons from within the limits of said town, who are duly qualified voters, in accordance with this Act; and further provided, that should all the judges heretofore named become disqualified to act, it shall be lawful for any three or more qualified voters in said town to give notice, either by written or printed hand bills, of an election to be held on a certain day at least ten days from the date of publication, or posting of such notice under this Act; and a majority of the voters present at the hour fixed by said notice for the commencement of said election shall select three judges and proceed to hold said election for Town Commissioners as hereinafter provided.

Election for Town Commissioners.

Judges of election.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the citizens of Hillsboro who have resided in said town for six months previous to the day of election, and who are qualified in other respects to vote

Qualified voters to elect.